

The Parent's Journey

A Free Workshop Series for Early Intervention Families

Presented by Marci Ober-Wolf, licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and Marissa Muccio, Physical Therapist/owner of Pediatric Rehabilitation of North Jersey in collaboration with Helpful Hands, NREIC. This family series is designed to address a variety of topics common to parents of children with special health and/or developmental needs.

“The Marital Relationship”

New challenges such as raising a child with special needs often adds stress to a marriage. Explore parental & marital roles, communication challenges, time issues and shifting priorities while learning how to cope, individually and as a couple.
